

YOUR RIGHTS

You're welcome here – regardless of interests, appearance, sexual orientation, self-identification, beliefs. You don't need to know a thing about soldering irons or root shells to belong here.

Only you decide:

... if somebody may take a photo or video of you.

... who may use or hack your devices.

<https://www.ccc.de/hackerethik>

... what names and pronouns are right for you.

... when you need to be left alone.

... what goes too far for you. Threatening and intimidation are not okay. No matter what.

... who may get how close to you. Touches, massages, caresses or kisses require your consent. Additionally, pressuring you into anything is not okay.

... on your own boundaries.

You can say "no" when boundaries are crossed. You can say "no" with looks, words, or your body posture. No matter whether you've said "yes" earlier.

You can always get support for yourself and for others. If you feel uncomfortable or unwell, or if you feel that others need support.
